Archbishop Apostolos of Canada Welcomes Representatives of the Cypriot Community of Toronto

(Toronto, Ontario) On October 13, 2026, His Eminence Archbishop Apostolos of Canada warmly welcomed representatives of the Cypriot Community of Toronto, led by its President, Mrs. Irene Ramphalie.

Present were Directors Nick Hadjiyianni, Andreas Ioannou, and Helen Tofas, along with Maria Petri, Emily Ioannou, Soula Sergiou of the Ladies Auxiliary, and Mary Hadjiyianni.

The meeting took place in a warm and pleasant atmosphere, with friendly conversation and an opportunity to become better acquainted. It was a joyful occasion of fellowship, reflecting the bonds of faith, heritage, and community that bring people together.

During their conversation, His Eminence warmly invited the representatives and members of the Cypriot Community to join him in celebrating the Feast of St. Andrew the First-Called. Vespers will take place on November 29, the eve of the feast, at the Chapel of St. John the Theologian, bringing everyone together in prayer and fellowship.

The visit concluded in a spirit of warmth and friendship, with the invitation offering a welcome opportunity to gather again in prayer and celebration.
